my529 can help you get there

Celebrate 5-29 Day during May with my529, Utah’s educational savings plan.

Open a college savings account, and we will give you a start to grow from.

Utah residents who sign up may be eligible to receive a $40 match for new beneficiaries.

See details on next page.
Receive a $40 match

To receive a $25 matching contribution from my529, the account owner must open an account during the month of May for a beneficiary who is new to my529, and contribute $25 or more to the new account. Use code 529Day2023 during setup. my529 will match the $25 contribution on or about June 7, 2023. Account owners need to be Utah residents. The beneficiary does not need to be a Utah resident. Offer good while promotional funds are available.

To receive an additional $15 from my529—for a total amount of $40 with the initial $25 match—the account owner must set up a scheduled monthly contribution on the new account. The recurring contribution must take place uninterrupted for six consecutive months to be eligible. my529 will contribute $15 to those accounts on or around December 31, 2023, as long as promotional funds are available.

Get started at my529.org or by submitting an Individual Account Agreement.

---

Important Legal Notice

Investing is an important decision. The investments in your account may vary with market conditions and could lose value. Carefully read the Program Description in its entirety for more information and consider all investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses before investing. For a copy of the Program Description, call 800.418.2551 or visit my529.org. Investments in my529 are not insured or guaranteed by my529, the Utah Board of Higher Education, the Utah Higher Education Assistance Authority Board of Directors, any other state or federal agency, or any third party. However, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) insurance is provided for the FDIC-Insured investment option. In addition, my529 offers investment options that are partially insured for the portion of the respective investment option that includes FDIC-insured accounts as an underlying investment. The state in which you or your beneficiary pay taxes or live may offer a 529 plan that provides state tax or other benefits, such as financial aid, scholarship funds and protection from creditors, not otherwise available to you by investing in my529. You should consider such benefits, if any, before investing in my529. my529 does not provide legal, financial, investment or tax advice. You should consult your own tax or legal advisor to determine the effect of federal and state tax laws on your particular situation.